You Drive Me Crazy

by Nightcrawler247

Summary

Will went into so much denial after they fell off. The cliff that he got split personalities. One where he accepts that he and Hannibal are murder husbands. The other doesn't remeber their past and thinks they are just best friends and roommates who have only just admited their crush on each other and their relationship is new.

His murder side is not aware of the other and vis versa. Hannibal finds himself in love with both of Will's side and now unwilling to give up either.

Too bad both sides are starting to figure out somethings... off.

It took a while for Hannibal to figure it out.

If you can call a week a while. Once he realized what was happening however, he was at first considering how to remedy this. How to get will back on track of just one mind set. But after a while he wondered....

why not try to keep things as they are?
